

Kenneth Shaw

Kenneth Shaw has over 24 years of experience in the security industry that includes specializing in physical and background investigations, high-rise complex protection, personal protection, and the administrations of detailed facets related to security management and operations. Kenneth has a strong background in business both educationally and professionally, and has a history of marrying strong business principles with his various positions that have included Site Security and Operations Manager, Employee Investigator and Security Consultant. Kenneth's business and life philosophy is simple, "Do the very best at everything you do," and that philosophy is a proven asset to iidon Security and our clients.